

Jameson Pepperidge

555 Acorn Lane, Hobart, WI 54155
920.498.1212 | Jameson.pepperidge@gmail.com

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- 2+ years of experience in farm management
- Effectively calculates farm business cost of production for forage, grain, beef, pork and milk
- Experience preparing livestock management plans that are environmentally friendly
- Possess a strong work ethic and work productively in a team or individual setting
- Strong communication skills, both oral and written
- Critical thinker, problem solver, and decision maker
- Experience preparing and assessing a business financial plan

EDUCATION

Northeast Wisconsin Technical College, Green Bay, WI

Expected Graduation: May 2025

Technical Diploma, Farm Business & Production Management

- Relevant coursework: Farm Record/Business Analysis, Crop Management, Livestock Management, Nutrition, Soil Management, Farm Business Operation

EXPERIENCE

Farm Manager Intern

Athens Land Trust, Greenleaf, WI

April 2023 – Present

- Assist with managing and directing all farming activities including crop management, livestock, and staff
- Implemented a new fertilizer spreading technique, increasing crop yield by 15%
- Introduce new harvesting equipment, reducing labor costs by 25%
- Train staff on efficient irrigation and water management techniques
- Develop and farm 100 acres of fruit and vegetable production
- Explore marketing strategy to improve sales
- Manage greenhouse

Farm and Business & Production Management Intern

November 2022 – April 2023

Black Gold Farms, Hobart, WI

- Coordinated and led a staff of regular and temporary employees
- Participated in the budget creation and managed location expenses
- Procured crop inputs, including those for production and protection, and controlled this inventory
- Coordinated all aspects of crop production including; planting, spraying, cultivating, irrigating and harvesting operations
- Managed location records, including those on equipment maintenance and field records

Farmhand

October 2019 – November 2022

Happy Trails Farms, Wrightstown, WI

- Developed skills in animal management, machine operation, and herd nutrition
- Maintained high standards for grade A production
- Developed strong work ethic and sense of responsibility
- Completed field work and equipment maintenance